

Big screen. All Round performance.

Satellite C70-C-197

Introducing the Satellite C70-C from Toshiba - the widescreen 43.9cm (17.3") laptop that delivers the best of everyday computing. With a combination of high brightness HD+ resolution, and a screen size that provides a clearer view of the action, the C70-C is ideal for daily work and play. What's more, with a chic design and your choice of powerful Intel® or AMD processors, the C70-C performs every task in style, and at speed. Its optional non-reflective matt display minimises glare and maximises viewing quality too, so you can stay entertained even in bright sunlight.
